Club News:

The December meeting was our Christmas Dinner held on the 5th at the Longaberger Golf club. We had a great time with excellent food and wonderful company. Thanks to Pat Smith for planning the wonderful evening and for doing such a great job on the slide show.

In addition to all the awards that were presented for titles that have been earned over the year. Trainer of the Year was awarded to Carolyn Martin. Breeder of the Year was awarded to Connie and Christi Halliday. And Member of the Year (voted on by the membership) was awarded to Judy Riley. Congratulations to all!

As a reminder, the club has the Armory reserved Monday evenings from 6:45 until 8:15 beginning January 4th for club member's practice sessions. As a reminder if the weather is bad, the Armory will not be opened for us. Our spring public training classes will begin March 8th. We are discussing the possibility of opening up the conformation training classes as "pay as you go" for those who might want to come in occasionally rather than for the entire 8 weeks.

Quote of the month:

Did you ever notice when you blow in a dog's face he gets mad at you? But when you take him in a car he sticks his head out the window.
